Western Positive Psychology Association
4th Annual Conference
Saturday, January 26, 2019

Welcome

The 2019 Western Positive Psychology Association (WPPA) Conference aims to bring together a collaborative scientific community of faculty, students, and scholars to advance and support rigorous, evidence-based empirical research in the science of happiness, excellence, and optimal human functioning. The theme of the 2019 WPPA Conference is “Evidence-Based Applications in Positive Psychology.” This year we honor the legacy, exceptional leadership, and contributions to Claremont Graduate University’s Positive Psychology Programs of Mihaly Csikszentmihalyi, PhD.

We give special thanks to Mihaly Csikszentmihalyi, PhD, Distinguished Professor of Psychology and Management at Claremont Graduate University. We appreciate his exceptional leadership and contributions to the many fields influenced by positive psychology research and particularly are grateful for his inspiration and support of the positive psychology programs at Claremont Graduate University

Our 4th WPPA Conference features three special sessions sharing Claremont Graduate University faculty and student research on Positive Developmental Psychology, Positive Organizational Psychology, and Positive Health Psychology. Thank you to the faculty and students for sharing your research.

We would like to thank Omara Turner for her work both behind and at the forefront of WPPA CGU's 4th Conference event. Gratitude also to Paul Aaron Thomas for his willingness to edit our documents at all hours of the day. Thanks to Gina Pirtle and Sheila Lefor for facilitating bringing forward CGU's contributions to the marketing and printed materials from years past (2014, 2017, and 2018). We would like to thank the following volunteers.

Paul Aaron Thomas	Matthew Gold	David Fresquez
Brandon Sorenson	Leigh Schroyer	CGU Streaming Tech Team

And finally, heartfelt thanks to Stewart I. Donaldson, PhD, for his leadership and guidance in creating our Western Positive Psychology Association. His positive vision and unflagging support brought WPPA from a nascent idea in 2012 founded on a commitment to facilitating students and faculty across universities and institutions in a collaborative community to build the science of positive psychology together. Dr. Donaldson and his faculty are to credit for our growing community bringing us here today at Claremont Graduate University, January 26, 2019, to celebrate and share the newest advances in positive psychology research.

Thank you for joining us.
With gratitude,

The Western Positive Psychology Association Team
